

WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY

At Weber State University, we are committed to supporting the international faculty, staff and students who contribute to our intellectual diversity and educational excellence — a tradition that started with founding President Louis F. Moench, who was a German immigrant.

We respectfully urge the Trump administration to reconsider the recent executive order on immigration and reopen our country's doors to the many international visitors and refugees who help make our nation and university great.

Charles A. Wight